TRAINING COURSE Praxis for a Synodal Church

"Praxis is the thought that emerges in action and the action that evokes thought."

Andrew G. Reception

OBJECTIVE

As we enter the implementation phase of the Synod (2025-2028), and in light of the Final Document and the Paths for the Implementation Phase, this course offers pastoral and methodological tools for the implementation and dissemination of the synodal process.

METHOD

Lectures, group work, sharing of best practices in an intercultural and interdisciplinary context.

WHO

Priests, deacons, religious, consecrated persons, pastoral workers, lay men and women committed to building a synodal Church.

Online: Zoom platform (live and recorded)

The course consists of a single module of 12 lessons, for a total of 30 hours.

A separate registration and cost will be required for the Workshop

Languages: Italian, with translations into English and Portuguese.

Cost: €50 (not including the cost of the workshop)

A certificate of participation will be issued at the end of the course.
